

I whole heartedly support XM satellite radio. It's added benefit of Instant Traffic & Weather makes it that much more desireable. For the first time in years I feel that I have a choice while in the car. I can now alternate between satellite radio and CDs.

Public radio has too much chatter. When I want traffic &/or weather I just go to XM. I only wish they would expand their coverage.

Joan Capp